

A crowd of people is shown from behind, with their hands raised in a gesture of worship or praise. The scene is bathed in a warm, golden light, creating a sense of spiritual fervor. The text 'TRUE WORSHIP' is overlaid in a bold, red, sans-serif font. The word 'TRUE' is positioned above 'WORSHIP', and both are flanked by decorative horizontal lines consisting of a series of small, repeating arrow-like shapes pointing towards the center.

TRUE
WORSHIP

The background of the image shows several hands raised in a gesture of prayer or worship, rendered in a light, semi-transparent grey color against a white background. The hands are positioned behind the text, creating a sense of depth and context for the message.

We can't worship
with our heart and hands
what we don't know
with our minds.

John 4: 1-26

Therefore, when the Lord knew that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus made and baptized more disciples than John (though Jesus Himself did not baptize, but His disciples), He left Judea and departed again to Galilee. But He needed to go through

Samaria. So He came to a city of Samaria which is called Sychar, near the plot of ground that Jacob gave to his son Joseph. Now Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore, being wearied from His journey, sat thus by the well. It was about the sixth hour. A woman of Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, "Give Me a drink." For

His disciples had gone away into the city to buy food. Then the woman of Samaria said to Him, “How is it that You, being a Jew, ask a drink from me, a Samaritan woman?” For Jews have no dealings with Samaritans. Jesus answered and said to her, “If you knew the gift of God, and who it is who says to you, ‘Give Me a drink,’ you would have asked Him, and He would have given you living water.” The woman said to Him, “Sir, You have nothing to draw with, and the well is deep. Where then do You get that living water? Are You greater than our father Jacob, who gave us the well, and drank from it himself, as well as his sons and his livestock?” Jesus answered and said to her, “Whoever drinks of this water will thirst again, but whoever drinks of the water that I shall give him will never thirst. But the water that I shall give him will become in him a fountain of water springing up into everlasting life.”

The woman said to Him, “Sir, give me this water, that I may not thirst, nor come here to draw.” Jesus said to her, “Go, call your husband, and come here.” The woman answered and said, “I have no husband.” Jesus said to her, “You have well said, ‘I have no husband,’ for you have had five husbands, and the one whom you now have is not your husband; in that you spoke truly.” The woman said to Him, “Sir, I perceive that You are a prophet. Our fathers worshiped on this mountain, and you Jews say that in Jerusalem is the place where one ought to worship.” Jesus said to her, “Woman, believe Me, the hour is coming when you will neither on this mountain, nor in Jerusalem, worship the Father. You worship what you do not know; we know what we worship, for salvation is of the Jews. But the hour is coming, and now is, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth; for the Father is seeking such to worship Him. God is Spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth.” The woman said to Him,

“I know that Messiah is coming” (who is called Christ). “When He comes, He will tell us all things.” Jesus said to her, “I who speak to you am He.”

The background of the image shows several hands raised in a gesture of worship or praise, rendered in a light, semi-transparent grey color against a light grey gradient background. The hands are positioned behind the text, creating a sense of depth and context for the message.

In order to worship
God with our minds,
we must worship God
in TRUTH.

A black and white photograph of a hand raised in a gesture of worship or prayer. The hand is positioned on the left side of the frame. The background is blurred, showing other people in a similar pose. A large, bright red circle is overlaid on the right side of the image, containing white text.

God wants
people to
worship Him
for who He truly is.

What comes into our minds when we think about God is the most important thing about us. The history of mankind will probably show that no people has ever risen above its religion, and man's spiritual history will positively demonstrate that no religion has ever been greater than its idea of God. Worship is pure or base as the worshiper entertains high or low thoughts of God. For this reason the gravest question before the Church is always God Himself, and the most portentous fact about any man is not what he at a given time may say or do, but what he in his deep heart conceives God to be like. We tend by a secret law of the soul to move toward our mental image of God. This is true not only of the individual Christian, but of the company of Christians that composes the Church. Always the most revealing thing about the Church is her idea of God.

~ A.W. Tozer

A black and white photograph of a hand raised in a gesture of worship or prayer. The hand is positioned on the left side of the frame. In the background, other people are visible but out of focus. A large, bright red circle with a slightly distressed, hand-painted edge is overlaid on the right side of the image. Inside this circle, white text is centered. The text reads: "You see all of our worship is a RESPONSE to God's revelation." The word "RESPONSE" is in a larger, bold font and is underlined.

You see all of our worship is
a RESPONSE
to God's revelation.

The background of the image shows several faint, overlapping silhouettes of hands in various positions, suggesting a gesture of prayer or offering. The hands are rendered in a light gray color against a white background.

We can know
the truth about God
through his self revelation
in creation, the Scriptures,
and Jesus Christ.

The background of the image is a soft, out-of-focus scene with a warm, golden-brown color palette. In the center, there is a bright, circular light source, possibly the sun or a lamp, which creates a lens flare effect. Two pairs of hands are visible, their forms blurred and appearing as dark silhouettes against the lighter background. The hands are positioned as if they are reaching out or are pressed against a surface. The overall mood is ethereal and artistic.

a) Through nature

-
- The background of the slide is a soft, out-of-focus image. It features two hands raised in a gesture of praise or prayer, set against a warm, golden-brown light that suggests a sunrise or sunset. The overall mood is serene and spiritual.
- a) Through nature
 - b) Through the Scriptures

1 Timothy 3: 16-17

All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness, that the man of God may be complete, thoroughly equipped for every good work.

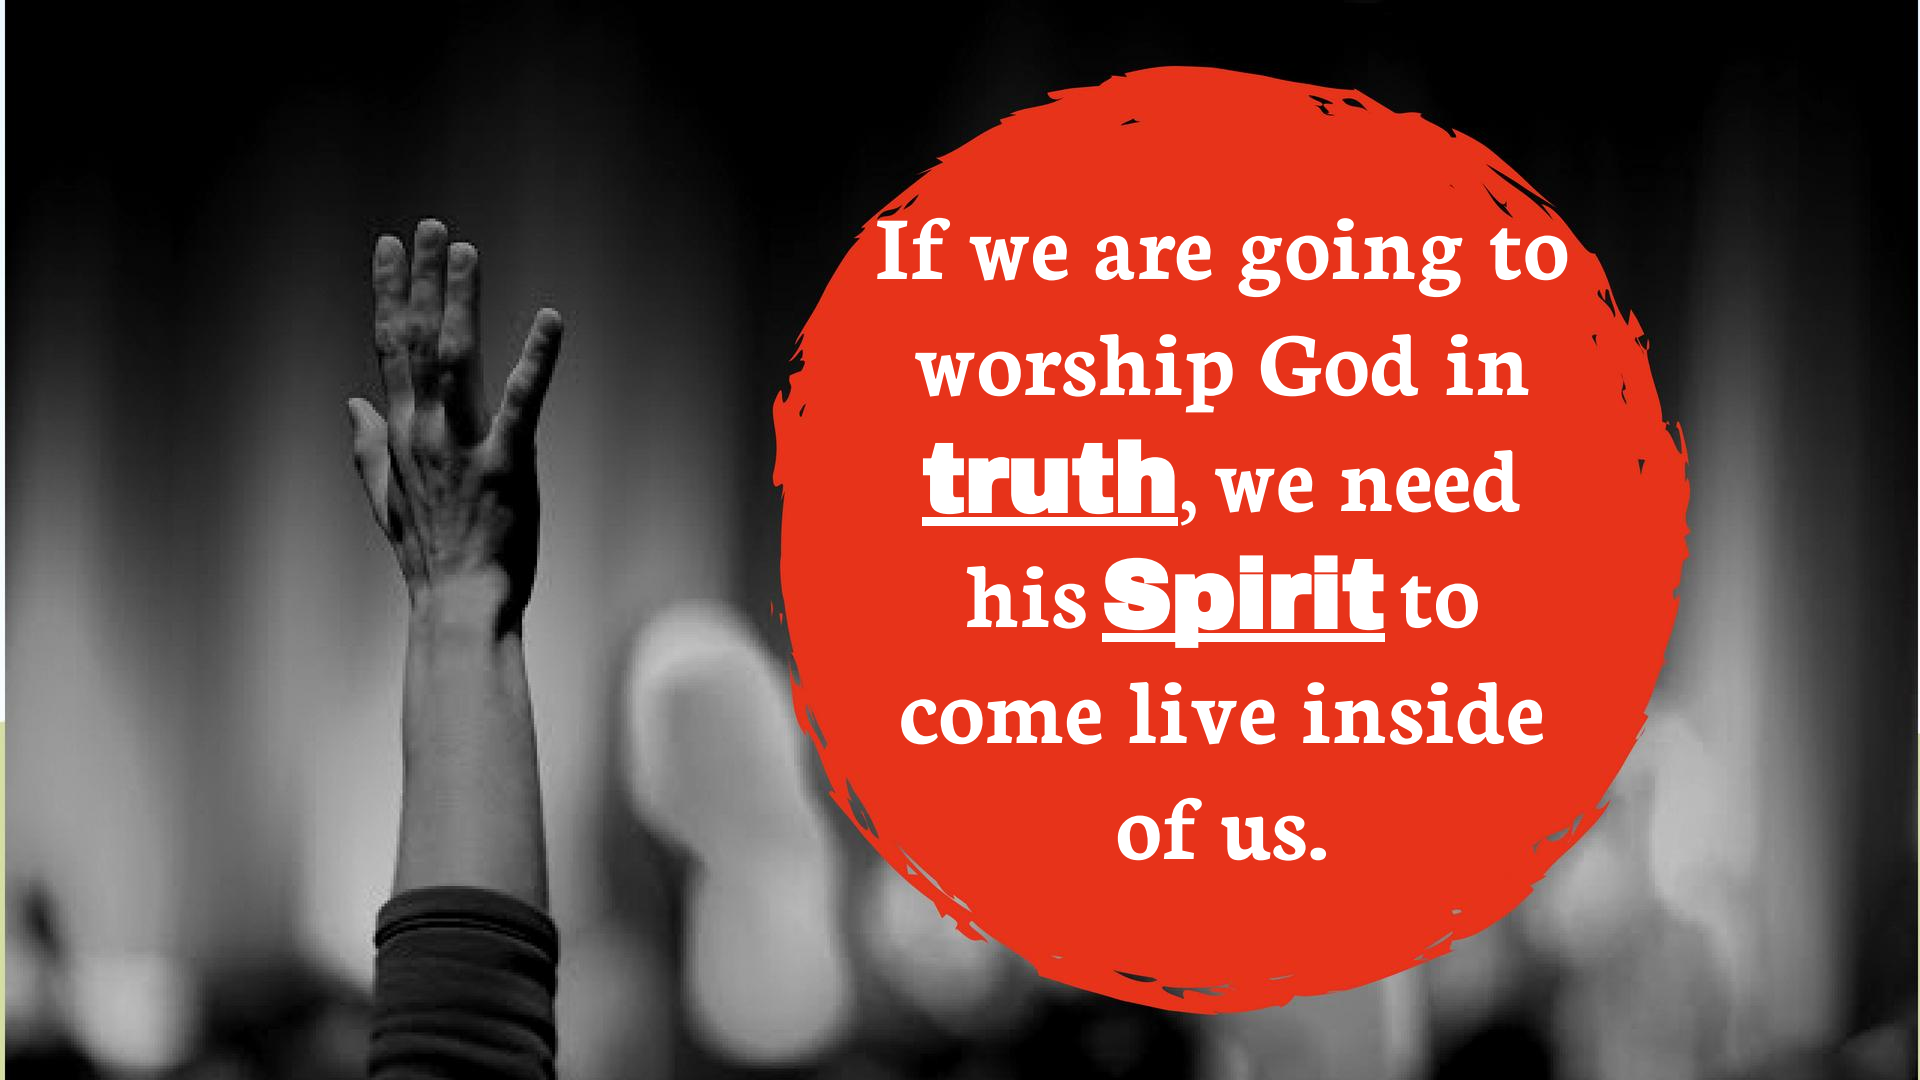

-
- a) Through nature
 - b) Through the Scriptures
 - c) Through his Son, Jesus Christ

Colossians 1:15-16

He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn over all creation. For by Him all things were created that are in heaven and that are on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers. All things were created through Him and for Him.

The background of the image shows several hands raised in a gesture of worship or praise, set against a light, hazy background. The hands are rendered in a soft, semi-transparent style, creating a sense of depth and movement. The overall tone is spiritual and uplifting.

In order to worship God
with our minds,
we must worship God
in SPIRIT.

A black and white photograph of a hand raised in a gesture of worship or prayer. The hand is positioned on the left side of the frame, with fingers spread. The background is out of focus, showing other people in a similar pose, suggesting a church service or a group of worshippers. A large, bright red circle is overlaid on the right side of the image, containing white text.

If we are going to worship God in
truth, we need
his Spirit to
come live inside
of us.

1 Corinthians 2: 6-12

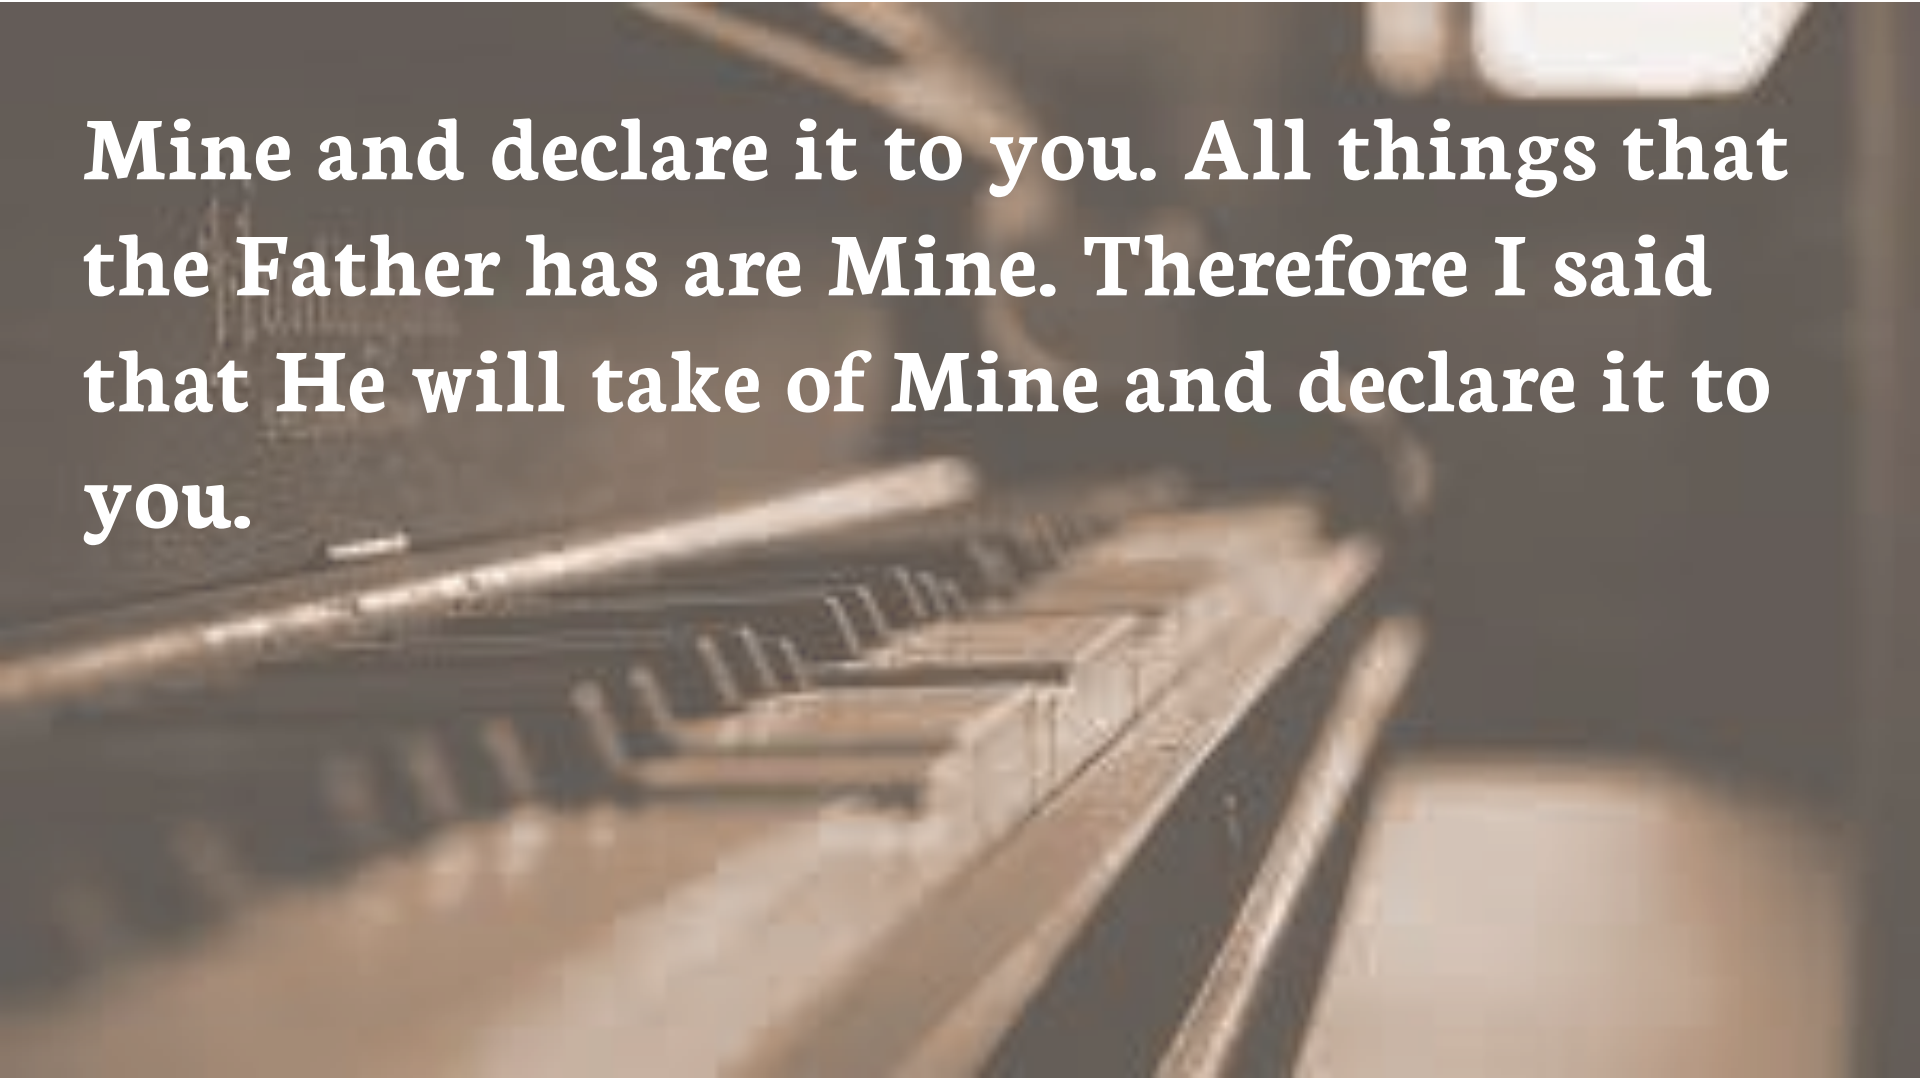

However, we speak wisdom among those who are mature, yet not the wisdom of this age, nor of the rulers of this age, who are coming to nothing. But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, the hidden wisdom which God ordained before the ages for our glory, which none of the rulers of this age knew; for had they known, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. But as it is written: "Eye has not seen, nor ear heard, Nor have entered into the heart of man The things which God has prepared for those who love Him." But God has revealed them to us through His Spirit. For the Spirit searches all things, yes, the deep things of God. For what man knows the things of a man except the spirit of the man which is in him? Even so no one knows the things of God except the Spirit of God. Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, that we might know the things that have been freely given to us by God.

John 16: 13-15

However, when He, the Spirit of truth, has come, He will guide you into all truth; for He will not speak on His own authority, but whatever He hears He will speak; and He will tell you things to come. He will glorify Me, for He will take of what is Mine and declare it to you. All things that the Father has are Mine. Therefore I said that He will take of Mine and declare it to you.

The background of the image shows several hands raised in a gesture of prayer or praise, rendered in a light, semi-transparent grey color against a white background. The hands are positioned at various heights and angles, creating a sense of collective worship.

God's Spirit comes to live inside of us
through BELIEF
in Jesus.

John 4: 13-14

Jesus answered and said to her, “Whoever drinks of this water will thirst again, but whoever drinks of the water that I shall give him will never thirst. But the water that I shall give him will become in him a fountain of water springing up into everlasting life.”

John 7: 37-39

...Jesus stood and cried out, saying, “If anyone thirsts, let him come to Me and drink. He who believes in Me, as the Scripture has said, out of his heart will flow rivers of living water.” But this He spoke concerning the Spirit, whom those believing in Him would receive; for the Holy Spirit was not yet given, because Jesus was not yet glorified.

The background of the image shows several hands raised in a gesture of worship or praise. The hands are rendered as soft, semi-transparent shadows against a light, hazy background. The central focus is the text, which is written in a bold, red, sans-serif font. The text is arranged in four lines, centered horizontally. The overall mood is one of reverence and spiritual expression.

The ability to worship God
is a GIFT.

